Celebrating good times

We're proud to have helped over 8000 organisations access our learning library from across Australia. In addition to the guidance our team has given through our videos and course, we've held some great expert Q&A sessions. Our team of subject matter experts have personal organisations with the following:

- Win grants and tenders
- Set up their organisation's structure
- Amend their constitution
- Have a positive outcome, navigating a potentially significant member conflict
- Increase their membership and volunteers by thinking differently about how they market these opportunities

We love hearing about positive outcomes we've helped you achieve, so please keep sharing this with us :)
