Ask me anything - Grants

Last chance for the year!

Are you thinking of applying for a grant? Or in the middle of writing your grant application? This is your chance to ask our grant expert any questions you have about your application. This might include:

How do I know if I'm eligible to apply?

Should I apply for the maximum amount?

What can I and can't I include in my budget application?

How do I increase my chances of winning the grant Why do my grant applications keep getting rejected?

Do I have to pay tax on grant money?

How do you do an acquittal?

Have a specific grant application you're working on right now?

Bring all your questions to this online workshop and let our expert answer them for you.

Is your AGM coming up?

For those who are having your Annual General Meeting, now is the time to brush up on your knowledge to run a smooth and legally compliant AGM. Watch as our governance expert Natalie Bramble explains how to run your AGM.

It's time to be merry, and thank your volunteers

Thanking volunteers in a not-for-profit organisation during the holiday break is a wonderful way to show appreciation for their hard work and dedication. One way to do this is by organising a special thank-you event. This could be a small gathering or a virtual meet-up, depending on what's feasible. During this event, highlight the achievements of the volunteers over the past year, and how their efforts have made a positive impact. Personal stories or testimonials can be shared to make the event more meaningful. Additionally, small tokens of appreciation, like custom thank-you cards or festive treats, can be given to each volunteer. This gesture not only shows gratitude but also reinforces their value to the organisation.

You can also encourage the rest of the organisation, including other volunteers and staff, to share their thanks and experiences. This creates a sense of community and shows the volunteers that their contributions are recognised and appreciated by everyone.

Remember, a genuine and heartfelt thank you can go a long way in making volunteers feel valued and motivated to continue their great work.
