Upcoming Online Workshops

How to run your AGM

Annual General Meetings are held once a year, in line with your organisation's constitution. There are many elements to an AGM, but they can still be fun and engaging.

Natalie and Andrew will guide you step by step on how an AGM can be run effectively and legally. They will also discuss how to make your meeting positive and effective.

Topics covered will include:

- Scheduling your AGM
- Giving adequate notice of your AGM
- How to advertise and encourage new members
- How to prepare for your AGM
- What reports need to be presented
- Election of Officers
- What happens after your AGM
- Whether you are preparing for your 1st or 21st AGM this webinar is for you.

Create a Fundraising Plan - Part 2

In Part 2, we will work through the fundraising template to achieve your goals.

If you attend Part 1 and Part 2, you will leave with a draft fundraising plan. There will be plenty of time to ask Natalie your questions.

This will be a hands-on session, where we work through the template step by step.

If you missed Part 1 of this series you can watch a recording in your library HERE.

Applying for a Grant?

Ask our grant expert all your questions.

Are you thinking of applying for a grant?
Or, in the middle of writing your grant application?

This is your chance to ask our grant expert any questions you have about your application.

Some questions you might want to ask:

- How do I know if I'm eligible to apply?
- Should I apply for the maximum amount?
- What can I and can't I include in my budget application?
- How do I increase my chances of winning the grant
- Why do my grant applications keep getting rejected?
- Do I have to pay tax on grant money?
- How do you do an acquittal?

Have a specific grant application you're working on right now? Bring all your questions to this online workshop and let our expert answer them for you.

Don't miss this Free online workshop.

Thursday 6 October 2022,

Time: 12:00pm - 1:00pm AEST
